Dear parents

Chinese and English Dictations (First Term)

To cultivate students' good learning attitudes and habits, dictations for Chinese and English subjects this academic year will be scheduled to take place on Wednesdays in rotation. If Wednesday coincides with a public holiday or other major events, the dictation will be scheduled to another weekday. The dates for the dictations in the first term are as follows:

Week	Date	Subject	Remarks :
3	17-9-2025	Chinese Dictation 1	1. If there is a class suspension on the day of the dictation, the dictation will be postponed to the following day (Thursday).
4	24-9-2025	English Dictation 1
5	2-10-2025*	Chinese Dictation 2	2. The dictation scores will be used for calculating the term results. For details, please refer to the school website
6	8-10-2025	English Dictation 2
7	15-10-2025	Chinese Dictation 3	3. To enhance students' vocabulary usage, Part C of the English dictation, previously titled "Sentences," will be renamed "Vocabulary Booster" and will be worth 10 points.
8	22-10-2025	English Dictation 3
9	30-10-2025*	Chinese Dictation 4
10	5-11-2025	English Dictation 4

All subject teachers have adjusted the dictation content for this school year. We kindly ask parents to supervise their children at home and encourage them to study diligently to cultivate a positive learning attitude. The scope of the dictation for Chinese and English subjects will be provided by the subject teachers to all students. Audio recordings of the Chinese and English dictation content made by the school can be found on Google Classroom, and each subject teacher will guide students on how to access the relevant audio files during class.

Additionally, to help P.1 students adapt to primary school life, there will be no dictations in the first term; the above dates only apply to P.2 to P.6 students. If you have any questions, please reach out to the Curriculum Leader, Mr. Cheng Wai Kin.
