Food and drinks：	Picnic (bring their own foods and drinks) All students are required to bring drinking water. (The school recommends bringing at least 2 bottles of water).
Remarks：	1. Some activities will be held outdoors. Students should bring their own sun protection or insect repellent products. 2. Please note that all students must attend the school picnic because it is a normal school day. If you are unable to attend, please fill in the reason and explain. Students who do not participate in the activity must return to school for self-study from 8:30 a.m. to 3:10 p.m. on that day and will be taken care of by school staff. 3. 27/11/2026 (Friday) is the school holiday after the school picnic and students are not required to return school. 4. It will be rescheduled if Typhoon Signal No. 3 or above, or the Red or Black Rainstorm Warning Signal is issued by the Hong Kong Observatory on that day. 5. Parents can prepare neat summer or winter sports uniforms for your child according to the weather of the day. 6. The school has already subsidized the majority of the cost. Students currently receiving the "Student Financial Assistance Scheme Full Grant" will be eligible for further subsidy. The subsidized amount will be reimbursed towards the end of the school year, but students must pay the full fee initially. Should any student have financial difficulties, please contact the class teacher.

Please complete the e-notification and pay the fee via e-class (Alipay) by 6th November.

If you have any enquiries, you can contact Miss Fung.
